Since the Embassy of Spain will not return the documents submitted, all of the above must be produced in original and photocopy with a translation into English, French or Spanish (juror translator).

If needed for the assessment regarding the application, the Embassy may ask the applicant to submit any documents or additional data and to call the applicant for an interview.

The presentation and processing of an application does not guarantee the delivery of the requested visa

Applicants may leave the passport at BLS office or retain it during the processing of the application. If the visa is approved, it will only be delivered once the applicant hands his passport back to the Embassy.

The possession of a valid Schengen visa does not grant an irrevocable right of entry to or temporary stay in the territory of a Schengen member states. You may also be requested to present other evidence upon entry at the border post.

Once the visa is approved, the applicant has a maximum of 1 month to retrieve the visa in person. Otherwise, the Embassy will consider that the applicant has renounced the right to get the visa and the application will be filed.

In all cases the visa fee is non-refundable.
